Master of Taxation Course Requirements

Business Foundation courses (4 courses / 12 credits): These courses are to be taken only if the student has not completed equivalent undergraduate or graduate work with a "C" (2.0) or better.

1. ACG 6027 Financial Accounting Concepts: This course is equivalent to Principles of Financial Accounting
2. ECO 6008 Modern Economic Concepts/ Theories: This course is equivalent to 1 course of Macroeconomics and 1 course of Microeconomics
3. FIN 6406 Financial Management: This course is equivalent to Principles of Finance
4. MAR 6055 Marketing Processes/Functions: This course is equivalent to Principles of Marketing

Accounting Foundation course (1 course / 3 credits): This course is to be taken only if the student has not completed equivalent undergraduate or graduate work with a "B" (3.0) or better.

- ACG 6137 Financial Reporting and Accounting Concepts: This course is equivalent to two courses of Intermediate Financial Accounting (Intermediate Accounting 1 & 2).

Communication Course (1 course / 3 credits)

- GEB 6215 Graduate Business Communication Applications: Students must take GEB 6215 in their first semester in the program unless they are takingonly foundation courses.

Core Tax Courses (5 courses / 15 credits)

1. TAX 6025 Concepts of Federal Income Tax
2. TAX 6065 Tax Research TAX 6065
3. TAX 6105 Corporate Taxation
4. TAX 6205 Partnership Taxation
5. TAX 6405 Estates and Trusts

Program Electives (4 courses / 12 credits)

1. Select 3 courses/9 credits of 6000-level TAX courses (excluding Cores listed above), and
2. Select 1 course / 3 credits of one of the following
    a. A 6000-level TAX course (excluding Cores),
    b. Any 5000 or 6000-level Accounting course (excluding Foundations listed above), or
    c. Any 6000-level BUL, FIN or ECO course (excluding Foundation listed above).

Program Minimum Total for Graduation: 30 credits of Communication, Cores and Electives

Program Maximum Total (depending on the need to take Foundations): 45 credits of Business Foundations, Accounting Foundation, Communication, Cores and Electives