

FAU and U.S. Dept. of Treasury Cryptocurrency Conference

August 25, 2021
Virtual Conference

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Inspector General and Florida Atlantic University's Center for Forensic Accounting this conference will focus on the uses and abuses of cryptocurrencies, fundamentals of blockchain technology used for cryptocurrency and whether transactions are completely private, tax compliance for cryptocurrency transactions, and responses (strategic and tactical) to a ransomware demands on organizations.

Register online via FAU's Center for Forensic Accounting <https://business.fau.edu/cffa>.

The Registration fee is $100.00 ($125.00 after August 19, 2021).

Attendees receive approximately 300 minutes (approximately 6 hours based on 50 minutes per continuing education hour) for continuing education/ training for attending the full conference. Florida Atlantic University will issue a certificate of attendance upon successful completion. CPAs: See NASBA guidelines for claiming CPE hours for university non-credit courses.

No refunds will be given after August 19, 2021; substitutions are allowed. Attendees must register online at <https://business.fau.edu/cffa>. Registration is not complete until registration information and payment are received.

For questions about the conference please contact Maria at mgutierr@fau.edu .

The conference will be virtual