

Forensic Accounting and Covid-19/CARES Act Fraud Conference

Florida Atlantic University
March 23 - 24, 2021
Virtual Conference

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Inspector General and Florida Atlantic University's Center for Forensic Accounting this conference will focus on detecting and disrupting Covid-19/CARES Act fraud through forensic accounting and the importance of the forensic accounting and law enforcement communities working together to combat Covid-19/CARES Act related fraud.

Speakers will include members from components of government and private sector experts. Register online via FAU's Center for Forensic Accounting <https://business.fau.edu/cffa>.

The Registration fee is $150.00 ($175.00 after March 16, 2021).

Attendees receive approximately 750-800 minutes (approximately 15-16 hours based on 50 minutes per continuing education hour) for continuing education/ training for attending the full conference. Florida Atlantic University will issue a certificate of attendance upon successful completion. CPAs: See NASBA guidelines for claiming CPE hours for university non-credit courses. ACAMS training approval for the conference is expected.

No refunds will be given after March 19, 2021; substitutions are allowed. Attendees must register online at <https://business.fau.edu/cffa>. Registration is not complete until registration information and payment are received.

For questions about the conference please contact either Dr. Michael Crain, Florida Atlantic University, Center for Forensic Accounting (michael.crain@fau.edu) or Special Agent Chris Hersey, U.S. Department of the Treasury, Office of Inspector General, 202-322-9472 (hersey@oig.treas.gov).

The conference will be virtual