

Mental Health for Trauma and Resilience

THREE-DAY INTENSIVE AT FAU, ISRAEL IMMERSION OPTION*

In partnership with the International Collaboration on Trauma and Resilience (ICTR), the FAU International Center for Emergency Management is proud to offer training in the concepts of trauma and resilience to professionals and masters-level+ students. Very limited seating. For nurses, doctors, EMTs, first responders, social workers, therapists.

Concepts in Trauma and Resiliency | $375 for all three days

FAU Boca Campus

June 24, 25 & 26 2019

8:30 AM - 5:30 PM

What's included:

Coffee and Lunch each day

2.4 CEUs and Certificate

Parking and materials

Exclusive option for Israel Immersion and Medical Clowning Certification

DAY ONE:

The Neurobiology of Trauma

The Neurobiology of Attachment

Relationships Critical for Brain Development

How to Upgrade Positive Emotions

How to Work with Different Attachment Styles

DAY TWO:

The History and Systems of Trauma

How to Work with Traumatic Memory in the Nervous System

How Trauma Impacts Different Memory Systems

DAY THREE:

Modalities of Treatment for Trauma

Group Processing, Drills and Scenarios

*Israeli Immersion Intensive: two or three week options to further your Trauma and Resilience training. CONTACT DR. SHERRIE RAZ: drsraz0@gmail.com for all prices, dates and full detail. This is a separate program and registration. The Israel immersion is brought to you thanks to our partners, ICTR and Hebrew University. ONLY TEN SPOTS REMAIN for the Israeli Immersion Intensive.

Mission of ICTR: alleviating the effects of trauma in individuals, families, communities, and entire societies, throughout the world, through treatment, education, research, and deployment of trained, mental health professionals.

