After a tumultuous two weeks filled with momentous and controversial presidential pronouncements and decisions, two-thirds of Florida voters disapprove of President Donald Trump's performance. A poll released Monday by Florida Atlantic University found 66 percent disapproving of Trump's job performance. He has approval of 34 percent. The survey showed the partisan differences that marked the election season continue as strong as ever. Among Republicans, an overwhelming 73 percent approve of the president's job performance and 27 percent disapprove. Among Democrats, just 8 percent approve of the job he's doing so far, with 92 percent disapproving. Among no party affiliation/independent voters, 32 percent approved and 68 percent disapproved.
