Hospitality and Tourism Management Certificate (HSMG)

The undergraduate certificate in Hospitality and Tourism Management provides an industry-focused curriculum for those who desire employment in and/or knowledge of the hospitality and tourism industry – Florida's #1 private employer and the top global service industry. Florida is the #1 destination in the United States, and its state university system (SUS) has the strongest educators and tourism industry connections.

The certificate in Hospitality and Tourism Management is open to both degree-seeking and non-degree-seeking students and is available in person or fully online. It is particularly valuable for degree-seeking students both in and out of the FAU College of Business as well as seasonal residents. The hospitality and tourism industry employs almost every degree category and skill set in the business world.

Students must complete 15 credits from the courses below. All courses must be completed with a minimum grade of "C." Courses may have prerequisites, corequisites or other requirements. Non-degree-seeking students need program director approval prior to enrollment in all courses. Further certificate-specific information will be provided by the Hospitality and Tourism Management Program Director, Dr. Peter Ricci at peter.ricci@fau.edu

After completion of all courses with a grade of "C" or higher, students may request the certificate Student Academic Services Office (academic advising) located in the FAU College of Business, Boca Raton campus, Fleming West Building, Room 102, 561-297-3688.
