The Hospitality and Tourism Management program, listed within the Marketing Department, prepares students for management positions in multiple segments of the world's largest industry. Graduates assume managerial roles in varied hospitality disciplines including: resorts, hotels, restaurants, private clubs, meeting and event planning corporations, destination marketing associations, convention centers, cruise lines, casinos, theme parks, car rental agencies, sports facilities, spas, entertainment venues, and vacation ownership or fractional ownership operations.

Required Courses
A minimum of 120 credit hours are required for the degree. Other administrative requirements will be needed; see the University Catalog for detailed requirements.

Intellectual Foundation Program (IFP) Courses
The pre-business foundation courses satisfy much of the IFP, but the following additional coursework is required. Students with an AA (Associate of Arts) degree from a regionally accredited Florida Public Institution are deemed to have met the IFP. To view the entire IFP course list, use this case sensitive URL: http://www.fau.edu/ugstudies/IFP_curriculum_sheets.php

Natural Science 6 credits (one course must include a lab)
Global Citizenship 6 credits (a total of 6 hrs from the Global, & Humanities area must be designated as Writing-Across-the-Curriculum (WAC))
Humanities 6 credits

Pre-Business Foundation Courses (Minimum grade of "C")
To declare the HTMG major students must have: 60 credit hours, a minimum of a 2.5 GPA in the pre-business foundation courses below, and the foreign language requirement completed. Note: A lifetime maximum of three attempts (per course, including "W") on any of the pbus-foundation courses are allowed. Keep in mind, FAU policy states that students may not generally declare a minor, second major, or dual degree after earning 90 credit hours.
