A Helping Hand This Holiday Season

For the ninth year, Florida Atlantic University - including the COB's Department of Management Programs, the Office of Advising, and others - is teaming up to support needy children and families during the holiday season via The Giving Tree. Each year, FAU helps over 200 children, and The Giving Tree distributes gifts to approximately 2,000 needy kids in the community. For example - during the month of November, Management Programs donated an assortment of toys and clothing (pictured) for two children in need. For more information, please visit www.thegivingtreeboca.org.
