

FAU Business News

// May 2020

FAU Executive Education Jumps in Financial Times Rankings

FAU Business' Executive Education ranked #1 in both Florida and the U.S. Southeast, #11 nationally and #59 globally jumping 12 spots in the 2020 Financial Times worldwide rankings for open enrollment professional education programs, posting one of the largest improvements of any university. More >

FAU College of Business Experts: Media Spotlights

FAU Business faculty serve as a resource for local, national, and international news media. Weighing in on current events, our faculty engage the community and educate consumers to help them make informed decisions.

- The new world of the coronavirus pandemic | WPEC CBS12 News
- Florida throws open its doors - and holds its breath | Politico
- Coronavirus Florida: How will mass-scale tourism fare when the economy reopens? | The Palm Beach Post

More >

FAU Expert Cautions About Securities Fraud During Coronavirus Crisis

Securities fraud levels rise in periods of economic downturns so there are reasons to be concerned about improper dealings during the COVID-19 pandemic, said Douglas Cumming, Ph.D., a professor of finance at FAU Business. More >

COVID-19 Turning Vacant Homes into Real Estate Darlings

Vacant homes, long considered a drag on the U.S. real estate market, are getting an image makeover courtesy of the coronavirus crisis, said Ken H. Johnson, Ph.D., an economist at FAU Business. More >

Biden Leads Trump in Florida, but President Expected to Win Four More Years

Presumptive Democratic nominee Joe Biden has pushed ahead of U.S. President Donald Trump in Florida, but Trump still is favored to win re-election. Furthermore, voters are split down the middle on Trump's handling of the coronavirus, according to a statewide survey of registered Florida voters by the FAU Business and Economics Polling Initiative (FAU BEPI). More >

Economic Pain, Slower Spread of COVID-19 Would Have Happened Without States' Stay-at-Home Orders

Local Government Action Plays a Larger Role Than Previously Understood

Google Mobility numbers show that people didn't wait for states to order them to stay home during the coronavirus outbreak, according to a new research paper by William Luther, an assistant professor of economics at FAU Business. More >

Celebrating FAU's Class of 2020

Congratulations, Class of 2020! View all of the FAU Business, Spring 2020 grads on the university's commemorative website.

