“Meet Your Neighbor”

The Division of Research (DOR) has created a new ORD Canvas site <https://canvas.fau.edu/enroll/E8ENDT> with many great resources for applying to grants. The DOR has also instituted new "Meet Your Neighbor" events to meet other researchers across campus interested in the same topics. You can sign up for these events below:

January 15: COVID Research - SIGN UP

February 19: Health equity - SIGN UP

March 19: Older adults, diet, and health promotion - SIGN UP

April 16: AI & healthcare - SIGN UP

September 17: Environmental Justice - SIGN UP

October 15: Medical Humanities - SIGN UP

November 19: Public Health - SIGN UP

December 17: HIV/AIDS - SIGN UP

All events run from 9am - 10:30am.

Registration requires the submission of a brief description of your relevant research interests that will be distributed to all participants. For further questions, please contact Dr. Karin Scarpinato at kscarpinato@fau.edu.

Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship (SURF)

- FUNDING OPPORTUNITY for Faculty: Call for Proposals
- Proposals Deadline: January 15, 2021.

The Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship (SURF) program is now accepting applications from faculty for summer research projects for the 2021 SURF program. SURF projects are ten-week, intensive summer immersion research experiences for FAU undergraduate students and each SURF award allocates $4,000 in support of each chosen project. Faculty from all FAU colleges are encouraged to submit a project for consideration; visit the OURI-SURF page here.

To apply, faculty must complete an online application form providing details about the project and the faculty/student team. Questions? Please email jsoberon@fau.edu
