

Leadership and Human Resource Development Minor (LDHR)

Effective leadership, change management and human resource planning and development are critical in today's competitive business environment. The minor in Leadership and Human Resource Development is designed to enhance students' personal leadership potential, capacity to implement organization change and ability to organize and develop employees. Students examine contemporary leadership models, strategies for approaching organizational transformation and employee intervention processes.

Additional Requirements

The minor is open to all degree-seeking students other than MGMT-LAMS majors.

A maximum of 3 credits used for the minor may count toward other business major requirements. A minimum of 6 credits must be exclusive to the minor. A minimum of 9 credits for the minor must be taken at FAU.

Timely Graduation

Minors and certificates should be considered an optional direction for elective credits. Students may not add a minor or certificate without permission from a COB advisor (and main college advisor if different). Students are generally not permitted to add a minor/cert after earning 90 credit hours or if completing it will result in an Excess Hour Surcharge.

Maximum Course Attempts

FAU counts a "course attempt" as any time a student is enrolled in a course (at any institution) and earns either a grade or a "W". FAU COB students may not attempt any course more than twice; third attempts are not permitted.

The FAU Catalog is the official source for information about these requirements.
